1. BACKGROUND

Gives the opportunity for municipality to welcome their new recruits, help them to settle in and ensure they have the knowledge and support they need to perform their role.

2. PURPOSE OF POLICY

To integrate all employees into the organisational culture of Mbhashe Local Municipality.

3. OBJECTIVE OF POLICY

- a) To make a new employee more rapidly productive when a new employee joins an organisation, he/she is unfamiliar with the way in which the work must be done, how the organisation functions and how to act to fit into the organisation effectively.
- b) To reduce fear and insecurity most new employees experience a degree of fear about whether they will succeed in the job. Proper induction can eliminate the new employee's initial insecurity and fear, so that he/she can address the new task with a positive attitude.
- c) The reduction of labour turnover Labour turnover is particular high during the first phase of the employee's period of service. If the employee is allowed to build up negative feelings towards the task during this time, then the employees can be induced to leave the service of the organisation.
- d) An effective induction programme can make a positive contribution towards limiting labour turnover to a minimum during the initial phase of the new Employee's career.
- e) Helping to create realistic employee expectations
- f) During the induction programme, new employees must be taught exactly what the organisation expects of them and what they in turn can expect from the organisation.
- g) An induction programme can make an important contribution towards toning down expectations and basing them on reality
- h) Creating job satisfaction and a positive attitude towards the employer
- i) The induction programme can contribute towards the employer and job satisfaction on the part of the new employee.
- j) Induction ensures that company policies and other employment practices are communicated face to face to the new employee

4. SCOPE

- a) Induction training shall be conducted for all employees and Interns of the Municipality as follows:
