1. PURPOSE OF POLICY

The aim of this Performance Management Policy and Procedure Manual is to provide the principles, prescripts and the process applicable to the performance assessments of employee, as well as the allocation of performance incentives to eligible employees

2. OBJECTIVE OF POLICY

The overall objective of implementing and sustaining an effective Individual Performance Management System is:

- 2.1 To build human capital at strategic and operational levels throughout the municipality.
- 2.2 To build organisational capital in line with the vision and mission of the municipality
- 2.3 To cascade PMS to lower levels
- 2.4 To recognize and reward performance of all employees
- 2.5 To monitor and measure performance against set targeted outputs

3. SCOPE

This policy is applicable to all employees of Mbhashe Local Municipality. More specifically, this policy shall be applicable to following categories of employees:

- 3.1 Employees referred to in the Municipal Systems Act as Section 56 Employees i.e. the Municipal Manager and the managers reporting directly to the Municipal Manager;
- 3.2 Employees who are permanent employees of the Municipality and fall within the ambit of the Local Government Collective Bargaining Council; and

3.3 Employees who are employed by the Municipality on fixed term contracts and fall outside of the Local Government Collective Bargaining Council.

4. POLICY DEFINITION

Assessment Cycle	1 July – 30 June, being the time period that is planned, monitored, reported on and assessed.
Core management competencies	Framework in the sense of a set of generic management competencies applicable to all staff in the SMS.
Performance Agreement	Links an individual's performance plan to organizational goals, and includes an explanation of the expected outcomes required to achieve effective performance.
Performance Review	A progress review is a structured and formal process in which the staff member receives feedback on his/her performance. This provides an opportunity for improvement before the annual review takes place
Performance Plans	The signed agreement between manager and employee of the standard of work to be completed during the assessment cycle.
Personal Development Plan	A personal development plan outlines the areas in which improved levels of competence are required and processes for ensuring improvement.
Performance Management Cycle	The performance management or assessment cycle describes the three phases through which PM moves: planning, monitoring, review and annual assessment. It must correspond with the financial year – 1 July to 30 June.
Performance Management Framework	The Performance Management framework describes the various components of the system and includes mechanisms for linking departmental plans to provincial strategic goals, and individual performance plans to departmental plans.
Rating Scale	The rating scale is a standard scale for rating employees' performance in relation to specific categories of performance. Rating scales are often used to introduce a degree of comparability into systems for performance assessment.

Strategic Objectives	Strategic objectives are concrete statements that describe specific results to be achieved. They serve as a basis for clarifying intentions, planning, guiding activities, and for assessing achievement.
Targets	Targets are agreed upon quantitative or qualitative deliverables within a specific timeframe. They support performance indicators by describing the optimal level of performance required.
Vision	Vision refers to the long term impact desired by an organization.
Points Scale	The point's sale is a tool to be used when rating performance during the evaluation process.
Progress review	A progress review is a structured and formal process in which the staff member receives feedback on his/her performance, thereby providing an opportunity for improvement before the annual review takes place
Quantitative and qualitative measures	Quantitative measures tell you "how much" or "how many" you have done while qualitative measures tell you "how well" you have done it.
Actions	Actions are the activities or steps undertaken towards achieving the products or services that need to be delivered. They are the building blocks of the key performance areas.
Indicators	Indicators describe what is expected in terms of satisfactory performance. They set the required level of performance.
Performance management and development	Performance management and development are all those processes and systems designed to manage and develop performance at the level of the public service, specific organizations components, teams and individuals.
